Roadside Fight Leads to Three Arrested and Seizure of Methamphetamines

Santa Rosa – State Police Officers out of the Santa Rosa office were dispatched to a fight in progress just after 9:00 PM last night. Upon the officer's arrival near mile post 258, they learned that three suspects in three different vehicles were involved in a fight after Sena was caught stealing items from a broke down vehicle on the side of the Interstate, the owners of the vehicle showed up and were not to enthused about the break in.

44 y.o. Edward Sena of Santa Rosa, NM, 28 y.o. Abraham Cortez and 23 y.o. Gregorio Cortez of Oklahoma were all subsequently arrested; three firearms were seized, with a half a key of Methamphetamine valued at approximately $10,000.00.

Edward Sena was charged with trafficking a controlled substance, burglary of a motor vehicle, contributing to the delinquency of a minor, possession of drug paraphernalia and tampering with evidence. Abraham Cortez was charged with Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon and criminal damage to property. Gregorio Cortez was charged with Aggravated Assault with a deadly weapon, criminal damage to property and battery.

All three suspects were booked into the Guadalupe County Detention Center without incident and without bond.
